Owensville Dutchgirl softball gets new coach, new field

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohnson@wardpub.com

For Owensville Dutchgirl softball, the days of driving to Lions or Memorial Field for games and practices are over.

Anxiously awaiting the completion of the new softball/baseball turf field, first-year Dutchgirl head softball coach Hannah Wehar and assistant coach Lori Payne are looking forward to the new season.

“As a first-year head coach, I am happy where the team is now and excited to see us continue to get better as the season continues,” Wehar said.

Having been an assistant coach for over a decade, Payne has seen the team go from Lions Field to Memorial Field and now to the new field on campus.

“It will be nice not to have to drive to get to games and practices,” Payne said. “I love the fact that we will be playing our home games on campus.”

Seniors returning for the final season of Dutchgirl softball include Caelie Horstmann, Mackenzie Rademacher and Emma Reed.

“Caelie Horstmann has been working to add to her offensive tools and is continue to become better at what she does,” Wehar said.

Juniors making up the majority of the softball team include Katelyn Landolt, Halie Boyer, Kaitlyn Nelson, Paige Bossaller, Gabby Bunners and Alyssa Belloir.

“Katelyn Landolt’s glove and hustle has stood out to me,” Wehar said. “She is a competitor and hustles in every situation.”

Sophomores on Wehar’s first Dutchgirl softball team include Anna Finley, Addison Wright, Paige Loyd, Shelby Koepke and Leah Reed.

“Anna Finley will be solid for us at shortstop and will find ways to get on base,” Wehar said.

Wehar will also look to Wright not only for her pitching but for her bat.

“Addison Wright has stood out to me having multiple pitches in her repertoire to go along with a powerful bat at the plate,” Wehar said.

Freshman rounding out the 2019 OHS Dutchgirl softball team include April Jahnson, Kelby Schoenfeld, Maria Benson and Caitlyn Miller.

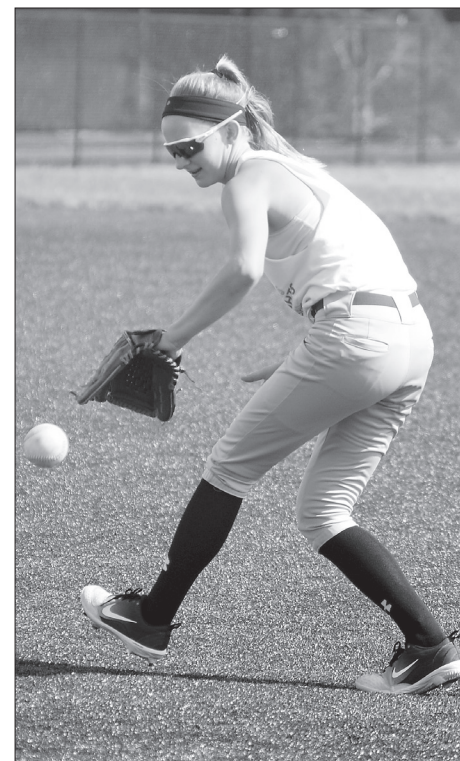

“I enjoy working with the girls and helping them improve their skills,” Wehar said.

Within the Four Rivers Conference and districts, Wehar looks for Sullivan to be their toughest competition this fall.

“They (Sullivan) have been a solid team the last few years and made state runs,” Wehar said. “I also think Union and Pacific will be teams pushing to be top dogs in both conference and districts.

Opposing teams should be aware according to coach Wehar.

“I think we will be a competitive team this season and may upset a few opponents that overlook us,” Wehar said.

ANNA FINLEY (above) works on fielding a ground ball back handed on Owensville’s new turf softball and baseball field. Hannah Wehar’s Dutchgirl softball team will christen the new field on Thursday, Sept. 5 hosting Linn’s Lady Wildcats with a 5 p.m., first pitch following pregame ceremonies.

Tough district awaits Dutchgirl volleyball

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Come late October, three streaks could come to an end in Four Rivers Conference (FRC) and area volleyball.

For second-year head coach Jamie Ridenhour and her Owensville Dutchgirl volleyball team, they will be looking to end a 40-year district title drought dating back to 1979 this October.

“Our district got a lot tougher with the addition of Borgia and Pacific,” Ridenhour said. “I feel like with what I have seen out of the team, we should be contenders for that championship game in October, but only time will tell. There is a lot of play between now and then.”

Competing this fall in Class 3, District 8 along with the Dutchgirls, Borgia and Pacific will be Salem, St. Clair, St. James and Sullivan.

Owensville and the rest of the district field will also look to put an end to Borgia’s 21-year reign of terror in district volleyball tournaments.

If a Ridenhour prediction comes true, it could be the first year since 1994 that a non-Highway 100 volleyball team (Hermann, New Haven or Washington) wins the conference title.

“In the (Four Rivers) conference, I really feel like we should be able to push for a top-three finish,” Ridenhour said. “I feel that Sullivan and St. Clair should be the front runners and considering we played a two-point match with them both last year, these games should be fun to watch.

Also according to Ridenhour, “The Four Rivers (conference) is easily one of the most competitive conferences in the state and there should be a lot of good matches within it this year.”

Leading the way looking for Owensville’s second-ever district title are the senior quartet of Marissa West-Derby, Maddy Steever, Emma Jahnsen and Stephani Elliott.

Juniors rounding out the varsity squad include Emily McKinney, Haley Coello, Cadi Ruth, Grace McFalls and Taylor McClure.

Making up Misti Rutledge’s junior varsity squad included sophomores Kyla Hendrix, Anna Heidbrink, Paige Deimeke, Keira Hendrix, Kayden Wood, Shelby Malone and Olivia Vandegriffe along with the freshmen duo of Josie Gerlemann and Kylie Kitchen.

Coach Ridenhour also has a good problem to have before the start of the season.

“Right now, I can’t really pick a standout player,” Ridenhour said. “The younger players are really coming on strong and the older players are only getting better with that type of play and pressure.”

Courtney Castor’s freshmen Dutchgirl volleyball team will consist of Mallory Eberlin, Drew Copeland, Molly Wnuk, Maddy Crull, Payton Boyd, Avery Bastunas, Harley Pyrtle and Abby Terry.

“I am excited to get started with our season,” Ridenhour said. “The girls have worked incredibly hard the last couple of weeks in practice and I truly hope that it is going to show up on the court.”

Following their jamboree last night (Tuesday) in Sullivan, Ridenhour’s Dutchgirls will open the 2019 regular season on Tuesday, Sept. 3 hosting Capital City’s Lady Cavaliers out of Jefferson City starting with freshmen action at 5 p.m. at Owensville High School.

Dutchmen football coaching staff has new and familiar faces for 2019

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Of the six Owensville High School football coaches from last year, only two remain for the upcoming gridiron campaign.

One of those is new Dutchmen head football coach Nathan Cabot.

Cabot takes over the program from Dale Long who is now the Activities Director at Southern Boone High School in Ashland.

"I'm excited to see what our season has in store for us," Cabot said. "We've got a young team that is improving with each practice and that will compete each and every night."

Along with being head coach, Cabot will oversee with the offensive and defensive lines. He will also have help in the form of assistant coaches Dean Pohlmann (defensive line) and Shane Hunt (offensive line).

Returning after a brief absence will be assistant coach Casey Fisher over the quarterbacks and linebackers. Hunt will also help Fisher with the linebacking corps on defense.

OHS' other returning assistant football coach in Dustin Howard will work with the running backs and defensive backs.

New to the district, assistant football coach Steven Kemp will work with the receivers and running backs.

"I'm really happy with all of the staff that we have," Cabot said. "I couldn't be more pleased with them and I'm really excited to be working with them this year."

Looking to improve on their 2-8 season from last fall, OHS Dutchmen football will have 17 seniors to lead the way.

They include Seth Scheidegger, Brandon Hiatt, Cason Gray, Trevor Abernathy, Austin Gregory, Cody Linders, Caeman Johnson, Jesse Krumrey, Javohntae Gates, Kayne Elms, Brendan Smith, Tanner Brandon, Joe Bauer, Hunter Hutchison, Wesley Eubanks, Michael Miles and Blaine Reed.

Gray and Elms are also returning All-Four Rivers Conference (FRC) players as a defensive lineman and wide receiver respectively.

Juniors also competing for Friday night light time include TJ Whelan, TC Fisher, Bryor Bogle, Garret West, Kolby Jahnsen, Luc Guerrero, Zach Adams, Owen Holtzer and Brayden Edwards.

Sophomores on the Dutchmen football roster include Brendan Decker, Dezmyrn Moore, Alan Kopp, Landon Valley, Derek Brandt, Austin Lowder, Levi Jedele, Trenten Watkins, Rainey Hinch, Aubrey Dawson, Logan Evans, Brent Helmig, Kyle O'Neal, Eli Wilson and Alex Pack.

"We have a lot of new players out there on the field and they'll only get better with time throughout the season," Cabot said.

Freshmen playing in their first season of high school football include Charlie Whelan, Gabe Soest, Austin Long, Zibbie Whitaker, Bryce Payne, Derrick Marquez, Brayden Kuebler, Hunter Boyer, Aiden Samson, Chance Clevenger, Kohl Grannemann, Trey

Johnson and Hunter Gibson.

Opening their 51st season of Owensville Dutchmen football this Friday night, OHS will host Potosi's Trojans at Dutchmen Field beginning at 7 p.m.

"We're still working out the kinks but we'll be ready for Potosi come Friday night," Cabot said.

After the season opener at home, Cabot's young Dutchmen will spend the month of September on the road with games against Eldon, Cuba, St. James and Hermann.

Opening the October portion of the 2019 season, Owensville will host Pacific's Indians for homecoming on Friday, Oct. 4.

Following a road showdown with Union the next Friday, OHS will close the regular season with home games against Sullivan and St. Clair.

First-round district action could be a rematch with St. Clair or Sullivan depending upon how the first nine weeks of the season turn out.

Other possible first-round district foes in the MSHSAA Class 3, District 2 Tournament include Bayless, Confluence Prep Academy, Roosevelt and St. Francis Borgia.

Sullivan, St. Francis Borgia and Roosevelt were all Class 4 football teams last year before making the drop to Class 3 for the upcoming 2019 season.

"I'm really excited about our district and think we can compete with anyone in there," Cabot said.
