Dutchgirl hoops returns five seniors

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR

Getting it all to gel together.

That is the goal for Ryan Flanagan's Owensville Dutchgirl basketball team as the upcoming 2021-22 season goes on.

"We've got a lot of skill in the gym, it's about trying to get it all to gel together," Flanagan said.

Recently signing her National Letter of Intent (NLI) to continue her education and basketball career as a Lady Miner at the University of Missouri - Science and Technology (S & T), Dutchgirl senior Anna Finley comes into the season leading OHS in several statistical categories.

As a junior, Finley averaged 20.5 points, 6.7 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 3.1 steals per contest.

"We've got some really talented kids coming back and also some talented ones just joining us at the high school level,"

Flanagan said. "I'm really pleased with the effort I've seen from our kids at practice thus far."

Other seniors along with Finley donning a Dutchgirl basketball uniform for their final season at OHS include Keira Hendrix, Kyla Hendrix, Addison Wright and Aubrey Dawson.

The Hendrix twins combined to average 12 points and 7.6 rebounds per game.

Ella Gehlert and Kiana Guerrero are the lone juniors on Flanagan's squad rounding out the list of upperclassmen.

Sophomores that will lead the underclassmen include Emma Daniels, Emily Krause, Anya Binkhoelter, Audrey Quilacio and Grace Abell.

Last year as a freshman, Emma Daniels established herself as a solid point guard that can score with the basketball averaging 13.4 points per game during her first season of high school basketball in an OHS uniform.

OHS wrestling sees numbers up for boys, girls

BY WILL JOHNSON

wjohnson@wardpub.com

With nearly 40 wrestlers between the Dutchmen and Dutchgirl squads, Owensville High School head wrestling coach Dustin Howard will have plenty of grapplers to find matches for during the upcoming 2021-22 season.

“While we may be young experience wise, it is nice to have more guys out for wrestling this year,” Howard said. “We’ve got plenty of guys with varsity experience which will help with the guys that do not have as much experience on the mats.”

Seniors looking to lead the wrestling Dutchmen this winter include Chris Stockton, Draiden Bush, Gerrit VanBerkel, Elijah Berkaw, Alan Kopp, Ashton Kramme, Kyle O’Neal and Brent Helmig.

Stockton is a returning state qualifier that will be looking to end his OHS wrestling career with a top-six finish and All-State honors at Mizzou Arena in Columbia.

Moved last year to Independence due to COVID-19, the 2021 Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHAAA) Wrestling Championships are currently scheduled to return to Columbia over the third weekend in February.

Michael Martin will lead the list of juniors hitting the mats after his fifth-place finish at 106 pounds in Independence last March.

“It will be nice having two returning state qualifiers to give our guys an idea of what needs to be done to get to state,”

VanLeer's Dutchmen beef up schedule

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

One game at a time.

That is how Cullen VanLeer's Owensville Dutchmen basketball team will treat the upcoming season that began last night (Tuesday) at the St. Francis Borgia Turkey Tournament.

"We're going to take things one game at a time," VanLeer said. "We open up at the Borgia (Turkey) Tournament against a tough Fort Zumwalt North team that went to the final four last year in Class 6."

What could be a blessing or a curse is that VanLeer has been without the majority of his varsity squad due to the Dutchmen football team winning their first district title in five years.

"Our football guys have been off doing their thing on the football field and we'll take care of getting them up to speed when they get back," VanLeer said.

In the meantime, the junior varsity and freshman Dutchmen have benefited with extra reps in practice over the last three weeks.

"It has been really good for the C-team, JV guys and the couple of varsity players that we've had to get those extra amount of reps in practice," VanLeer said.

Seniors looking to lead VanLeer's Dutchmen to their first conference and district title in nearly a decade include Brendan Decker, Derek Brandt, Austin Lowder, Landon Valley, Logan Evans, Ashton Kramme and Bailey Wehmeyer.

Decker returns as Owensville's leading scorer and rebounder averaging 12.3 points and 4.5 rebounds per game during his junior season.

Juniors rounding out the list of upper-classmen for Dutchmen basketball include Austin Luecke, Will Lauth, Bryce Payne, Charlie Whelan and Derrick Marquez.

"We've got a good foundation coming back," VanLeer said. "They know what we See VanLeer's Dutchmen on Page 14B want to do on defense and that will make me sleep a little easier knowing that we're ahead of where we were last year."

Sophomores leading the underclassmen portion of the Dutchmen basketball roster include Layne Evans, Tanner Meyer, Garrett Crosby, Charles Hazelwood, Landon Ely, Landon Brown and Blake Elliott.

Freshman getting their first taste of Dutchmen high school basketball this winter include Noah Caldwell, Ethan Ditto, Connor Fisher, Jansen Loeb, Eli Graham, Crew Epstein, Zaiden Gates, Nick Abel and Brandon Graham.

One noticeable schedule change this season will come near the middle of January.

Normally in the Belle Tournament, OHS will head west to a tournament that VanLeer competed in during his high school days as a Pacific Indian.

Heading into the Sunflower State, Owensville will compete in the Kansas Army National Guard Invitational at Fort Scott, Kan., from Jan. 20-22, 2022.

"We're getting a new look getting out of Belle and trying to go find some teams that we normally wouldn't play otherwise," VanLeer said. "It will be a good trip to go on to get the kids out of the area."

OHS will also host their annual invitational during the first full week of January to round out the tournament portion of their schedule.

Spending November on the road at the Borgia Turkey Tournament and in a Highway 19 showdown at Cuba, VanLeer's Dutchmen will open the home portion of their season on Friday, Dec. 3 hosting Salem's Tigers in a freshman, junior varsity and varsity tripleheader.

OHS will also have regular-season home games against St. Clair, Potosi, Capital City, Belle, Hermann, Pacific and New Haven.

With Hermann in particular, that game will mark homecoming and a shot for the basketball Dutchmen to get some revenge for the gridiron counterparts after their loss back in September to the Bearcats in the Gasconade County Bowl.

When district assignments came out Friday, the Dutchmen were given good news in that they will not have to worry about facing a loaded Blair Oaks Falcon squad that ended their season last year.

"Looking at the district that Blair Oaks stayed in, it got even tougher that it was last year," VanLeer said. "I'm happy that we got pulled where we were. The good thing is that we'll get to see all of our opponents before districts actually take place this year."

VanLeer sees the Four Rivers Conference (FRC) race with Union being the favorite and the rest of the teams right behind them.

"Union is the presumptuous favorite with what they have coming back," VanLeer said. "After that, it's kind of a cluster where we'll have to see what everyone puts out on the floor on any given night."

Dutchgirl basketball at the high school level will include Camryn Caldwell, Ali Daniels, Brynn Wright and Cameron Nowack.

Opening their season at with a pair of road games at St. Francis Borgia and Capital City, Flanagan's Dutchgirls will kick off the tournament portion of their season in St. Louis at the Marquette Tournament for both the junior varsity and varsity teams.

"We're going to see teams that are bigger than us and that will make us compete at a high level," Flanagan said. "We want to play the best competition we can play to prepare for districts and the postseason."

Other tournaments on the OHS regular-season slate include those at Sullivan prior to Christmas and at Hermann towards the end of January.

Flanagan sees the Four Rivers Conference (FRC) as a title that anyone could win.

"The (Four Rivers) conference is always tough," Flanagan said. "Anyone could win it. I think St. James was picked the preseason favorite with us right behind them."

Looking to put last year's COVID-19 plagued season behind them, Owensville's Dutchgirls are looking to the present."

"I'm excited about this season," Flanagan said. "We're not focused on the past, we're focused on the present."
