Seven starters return for Dutchgirl nine

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Losing just two starters from last fall's 14-13 season, Owensville Dutchgirl head softball coach Hannah (Wehar) Koppelman has plenty of reasons to be excited for the upcoming season.

"I'm really excited for this season and I think we have another winning season like last year," Koppelman said.

Showing the way for the diamond Dutchgirls will be six seniors in Halie Boyer, Kaitlyn Nelson, Alyssa Belloir, Katelyn Landolt, Paige Bossaller and Gabby Bunnars.

Landolt is getting closer to returning to action after tearing her anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) during basketball season last winter.

"We're anxiously awaiting Katelyn being cleared to play," Koppelman said.

Boyer will make the move from the hot corner (third base) to behind the plate in the catcher position.

"She's (Halie) quick and that will help us our back there behind the plate," Koppelman said. "She does a good job blocking and she's got a good arm."

Boyer will be opposite junior starting pitcher Addison Wright who had a solid sophomore season as a left-handed pitcher.

"We're going to have a solid battery between (Halie) Boyer and (Addison) Wright," Koppelman said.

Belloir will see time in the outfield in addition to Bossaller at second base.

Bunnars will occupy first base unless in relief of Wright and Nelson will be in outfield in addition to making the occasional relief or starting pitching appearance.

Juniors joining Wright on the roster include outfielder Paige Loyd, shortstop Anna Finley, utility player Leah Reed and outfielder Shelby Malone.

As the lone sophomore on the squad, April Jahnsen will spend most of her time on the diamond in the infield.

Freshmen rounding out the Dutchgirl softball roster include Grace Abell, Emma Daniels, Layni Heidebreder, Sophia Steinbeck, Hannah Nelson and Kate Blankenship.

"We've got a couple of girls new to us that are really going to help us out," Koppelman said. "We have more speed and athleticism this year which will help us on the base paths."

After opening their season in the Peoples Bank Back to School Softball Classic in Sullivan, Koppelman's Dutchgirls will make their home debut in 2020 on Monday, Aug. 31 against the Capital City Lady Cavaliers out of Jefferson City at OHS Field with a 4:30 p.m., first pitch for varsity action.

PAIGE BOSSALLER (above) fields a ground ball during infield warm-ups Saturday morning in an eight-inning jamboree scrimmage against Hermann's Lady Bearcats at OHS Field. Owensville will open their season Friday and Saturday in the Peoples Bank Back to School Softball Classic hosted by Sullivan High School at the Campbell-Chapman Complex.

Good Luck!

Dutchgirls eye first district title since '79

BY WILL JOHNSON

wjohnson@wardpub.com

In spite of not knowing their district opponents until mid-September, Jamie Ridenhour's Owensville Dutchgirl volleyball team still has a goal of ending their district-title drought that dates back to 1979.

"One of our team goals this year is to win a district title and get that 41-year monkey off our back," Ridenhour said. "Regardless of who is in our district, we'll be ready to play them when the time comes."

Leading the way towards ending the 41-year long drought will be Dutchgirl senior volleyball players Emily McKinney, Haley Coello, Cadi Ruth, Grace McFalls and Taylor McClure.

"These five seniors have worked hard for me over the last four years and I would love nothing more than for them to end their high school volleyball careers with a district and (Four Rivers) conference title," Ridenhour said.

McKinney enters her senior season as a returning All-FRC and All-District player.

Juniors also making Ridenhour's varsity squad include Olivia Vandegriffe, Anna Heidbrink, Keira Hendrix and Kyla Hendrix.

"Our juniors have also worked their tails off in the summer and during practice making themselves better," Ridenhour said. "We'll be looking to the Hendrix twins to help on the outside and at setter."

A trio of sophomores will also join their upperclassmen teammates on the varsity roster in Josie Gerlemann, Kylie Kitchen and Molly Wnuk.

Misti Rutledge's junior varsity squad will have a mixture of freshmen, sophomores and a junior.

Allyssa Taylor will be the lone junior on the JV squad along with sophomores Payton Boyd, Avery Bastunas, Harley Pyrtle, Drew Copeland, Kitchen and Wnuk.

New to the Dutchgirl volleyball coaching staff this fall is former player Taylor Payne.

Coaching the freshmen squad, Payne's roster will consist of Hannah Stoker, Payton Harness, McKenna Edwards, Anya Binkhoelter, Ayla Schmanke, Elise McFalls, Emily Krause and McKenzy Echols.

Following their jamboree scrimmage with Sullivan last night (Tuesday), Owensville will start their 2020 season on Monday, Aug. 31 at home against Linn's Lady Wildcats with matches starting at 5 p.m., at Owensville High School.

COVID-19 has already reared its ugly head canceling a varsity tournament at Fulton and a freshman/junior varsity tournament in Pacific during the month of September.

Owensville's quest for their first-ever FRC title in volleyball will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 22 when they will hit the road to face Union's Lady Wildcats starting at 5 p.m., at Union High School.

"As strong as the (Four Rivers) conference has been over the years, there is not one match that you can chalk up as an automatic win," Ridenhour said. "We've got to be ready to play no matter which conference opponent we face."

In an effort to recognize the five seniors in this time of uncertainty, OHS will have volleyball senior night on Tuesday, Sept. 8 as part of a Highway 28 showdown against Belle's Lady Tigers with matches also starting at 5 p.m.

OHS' first road contest will be Thursday, Sept. 3 in Jefferson City against the Capital City Lady Cavaliers in their newly constructed gym.

TAYLOR MCCLURE (above) sets a ball during a recent practice session for Owensville Dutchgirl volleyball. OHS will open their season Monday against Linn.

Eight seniors to lead Dutchmen football in 2020

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Experiencing some growing pains last fall, Nathan Cabot's Owensville Dutchmen football team will benefit from it having a number of returning starters on both sides of the ball that were either sophomores of juniors.

"We have a number of returners from last year and that will help us immensely," Cabot said. "The big thing we've kept in mind from last year is home young we were. All of the sophomores that contributed on varsity are now juniors and the juniors are now seniors."

Leading the way for Cabot's Dutchmen are 11 seniors in Zach Adams, Bryor Bogle, Weston Davison, Brayden Edwards, TC Fisher, Luc Guerrero, Owen Holtzer, Dayton Lawson, Dakota Martin, Garret West and TJ Whelan.

Fisher and West are both All-Four Rivers Conference (FRC) returners at linebacker.

Making up a baker's dozen of juniors for the Dutchmen include Derek Brandt, Aubrey Dawson, Brendan Decker, Logan Evans, Brent Helmig, Alan Kopp, Austin Lowder, Dezmyrn Moore, Kyle O'Neal, Alex Pack, Landon Valley, Zibbie Whittaker and Eli Wilson.

Decker (quarterback), Brandt (wide receiver and defensive back) and Lowder (running back) are returning All-FRC players.

Sophomores that could see either Friday or Monday night lights include Hunter Boyer, Chance Clevenger, Hunter Gibson, Kohl Grannemann, Trey Johnson, Austin Long, Derrick Marquez, Bryce Payne, Gabe Soest and Charlie Whelan.

Getting their first taste of high school football will be a team-high 18 freshmen.

They include Wyatt Berkemeyer, Jackson Carrell, Garrett Crosby, Blake

Elliott, Landon Ely, Layne Evans, Isiah Gates, Drake Holzschuh, Michael Keeler, Austin Mades, Brayden McDaniel, Tanner Meyer, Darryl Muschany, Cody Perkins, Tyler Scheer, Blake Shoemaker, Hayden Shoemaker and Aydan Silvers.

Two new faces will be coaching the Dutchmen on the offensive and defensive line.

Replacing Dean Pohlmann and Shane Hunt will be Zach Bollmann and Scott Lewis.

"Coach Bollmann and Lewis have brought lots of enthusiasm and knowledge to our program," Cabot said. "They bring a lot of fresh new ideas with them."

Working with linebackers and quarterbacks like last year will be R-2 Technology Director and assistant football coach Casey Fisher.

BRENDAN DECKER (above, right) appears to hand the ball off to a running back during a recent practice session at Dutchmen Field. OHS will open their season Friday night on the road in Potosi with a 7 p.m., kickoff.

Dustin Howard will be coaching running backs and defensive backs while Steven Kemp will coach the wide receivers and defensive backs.

In addition to his head-coaching duties, Cabot will work with the outside and middle linebackers.

Right out of the gate, Owensville will have revenge on the mind in their season opener Friday night against Potosi's Trojans on the road in Washington County.

"Depending on if they held a jamboree or not, we may go into this game blind," Cabot said. "If that's the case, we'll learn on the fly and make adjustments."

Cabot's Dutchmen will look to avenge a 44-28 loss last fall to the Trojans in their season opener at Dutchmen Field.

Following Friday's opener, Owensville will spend the entire month of September at the friendly confines of Dutchmen Field facing Eldon, Cuba, St. James and Hermann.

Senior night will be held during Owensville's Highway 19 gridiron showdown with the Wildcats on Friday, Sept. 11.

Homecoming 2020 is scheduled to take place on Friday, Sept. 25 when Hermann comes to town for the annual Gasconade County Bowl Game.

"We have this game circled and starred and we'll look to get the trophy back after they took it from us last year," Cabot said.

OHS Cross Country adjusts schedule due to COVID-19

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Seeing the largest number of attendance for summer runs in program history, Owensville High School head cross country coach Matt Candrl has plenty of reasons to be excited about the upcoming fall season.

"I'm really excited about our teams this year," Candrl said. "This has been the largest number of boys and girls in attendance for summer runs in the history of the program."

Finishing sixth in Missouri Class 3 Cross Country last fall and capturing their fourth straight Four Rivers Conference (FRC) team title, Candrl's Dutchgirls have three returning harries from that squad.

Led by defending district champion Mekayla Gibson, Owensville will also be led by returners Katie Candrl and Kyah Weirich.

"Mekayla finished 31st at last year's state meet just missing the top 25 and all state honors," Candrl said.

Coach Candrl's senior daughter Katie is the other captain of the Dutchgirl squad in addition to Gibson.

"Gibson and Candrl were apart of the state team that finished sixth their sophomore year," Coach Candrl said.

Other seniors in addition to Gibson and Candrl include Kate Angell, Isabelle Bruckerhoff, Libby Korman, Jodi Lock and Juliana Watkins.

"Kate Angell is in her first year running cross country and has moved herself into the number three spot for the Dutchgirls," Coach Candrl said.

Juniors running for the Dutchgirl harriers include Kierra Finn, Arissa Huff, Hayden Loeb and Kyah Weirich.

With Saylor Richardson as the lone sophomore, Candrl's Dutchgirl squad is rounded out by the freshmen foursome of Jasmine Duncan, Cassidy Gooch, Katelyn Holtzer and Peyton Weiland.

"Currently rounding out the top seven for the Dutchgirls will be sophomore Saylor Richardson, freshman Jasmine Duncan and seniors Isabelle Bruckerhoff and Julianna Watkins," Coach Candrl said.

Denied their sixth-straight FRC title by Hermann last fall, Candrl's Dutchmen harriers will look to start a new streak in 2020.

With Austin Terry's move to Hermann, Cameron O'Neal is the lone returning senior for Candrl's Dutchmen harriers.

Joining O'Neal as upperclassmen will be juniors Jacob Breedlove, Samuel Hoffman, Samuel Nicks, Braedn Stone, Harm Rademacher and Freddy Zheng.

"Juniors Harm Rademacher, Freddy Zheng and Jacob Breedlove will carry the duties of the top five for us this season," Candrl said.

Sophomores Noah Holtmeyer, Lucas Morgan and Trevor Shockley will look to push the upperclassmen for spots in the top seven throughout the fall.

See OHS on Page 14B

“Newcomer Lucas Morgan has moved himself into a varsity role and should continue to get better throughout the season,” Candrl said. “Sophomores Braedn Stone and Trevor Shockley have the potential to round out the top seven.”

Freshmen rounding out the Dutchmen cross country roster include Jaden Barnett, Andrew Blankenship, Robert Coello, Tristan Davis, Felix Guerrero, Michael Hair, Jim Jenkins and Trent Million.

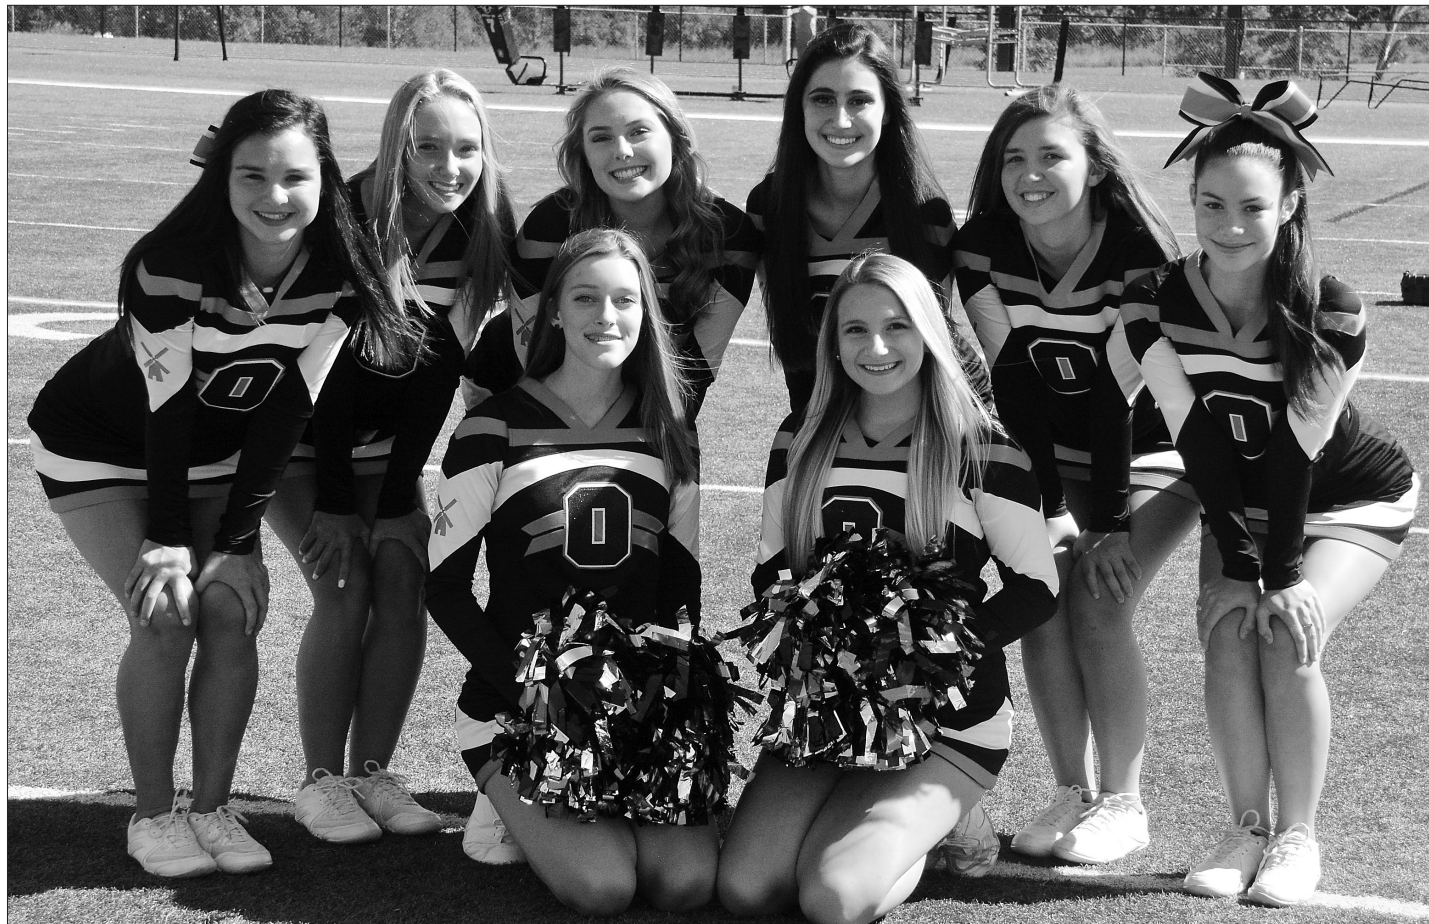

Managers helping the OHS Cross Country team this fall will include Carter Lairmore, Erik Shell and Aiden Walters.

Losing out on meets at Memphis (Tenn.), Forest Park and Joplin due to COVID-19, Candrl’s OHS Cross Country team will open their season on Tuesday, Sept. 1 the Fleet Feet Classic in Arnold followed four days later by the New Haven Cross Country Invitational over Labor Day weekend.

Instead of running at Forest Park, OHS will compete in the Linn Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 12.

Regular October meets will be held at Hermann (Tuesday, Oct. 6) and Owensville (Tuesday, Oct. 13) in addition to the annual FRC meet at New Haven on Tuesday, Oct. 20.
