Loaded district awaits OHS Dutchgirl softball

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohnson@wardpub.com

A tough schedule that just got tougher. That is what Hannah Koppelman's Owensville Dutchgirl softball team found out Friday morning when district assignments and classifications were released by the Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA).

As if having Sullivan fresh off another run to state in the district was not hard enough, Blair Oaks' Lady Falcons were added to the MSHSAA Class 3, District 5 Tournament field.

Blair Oaks and Sullivan faced off in a MSHSAA Class 3 state softball semifinal and both teams have the bulk of their rosters back from last year.

Other teams joining the Dutchgirls, Lady Falcons and Lady Eagles in the MSHSAA Class 3, District 5 Tournament field include Cuba, St. Clair, St. Francis Borgia and St. James.

Owensville on the other hand has a team primarily made up of underclassmen.

A familiar face will look to help the Dutchgirls improve throughout the season.

Replacing Shane Hunt, former Dutchgirl softball player Rhiannon (Edler) Schaeferkoetter will patrol the first-base coaches box opposite Koppelman.

"I'm really happy to have Rhiannon as my assistant coach," Koppelman said. "She brings a lot of passion to the game and being a former Dutchgirl also helps."

Leading the way as the lone senior on the 2022 Owensville Dutchgirl softball roster is infielder April Jahnsen.

Juniors rounding out the list of upperclassmen for OHS include Grace Abell, Jessalyn Farris, Emma Daniels, Isabella Pratt, Anya Binkhoelter and Kate Blankenship.

Daniels and Blankenship will lead the infield at shortstop and first base respectively providing the most varsity experience among returning players.

Sophomores comprising the majority of the team in 2022 include Katie Loyd, Alison Daniels, Caidence Goodman, Bailee Dare, Hannah Berkaw, Jenna Vandegriffe, Savannah Knight and Danika Hinson.

Freshmen rounding out the Dutchgirl softball roster include Clara Julius, Claire Oswald, Lily Barker, Trinity Rossi and Cailin Floyd.

With more flexibility in game scheduling, Owensville was able to switch up their tournaments and add more regular-season contests.

Instead of going to Rolla in early October, Koppelman's Dutchgirls will compete in the AA Tournament at Russellville High School in late September.

"We wanted to find a different tournament that was not so close to districts," Koppelman said. "We felt like the one in Russellville fit our team this year."

Dutchgirl volleyball sees district landscape return to normal

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Inserted into a tough Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA) Class 3, District 8 volleyball tournament field that included the likes of Fatima and Blair Oaks last fall, Jamie Ridenhour's Owensville Dutchgirls team saw themselves moved back into the MSHSAA Class 3, District 9 field and a more familiar group of teams for 2022.

Looking for their second district title in a three-year span, Ridenhour's Dutchgirls will compete against Cuba's Lady Wildcats, Salem's Lady Tigers, St. Clair's Lady Bulldogs, St. James' Lady Tigers and Sullivan's Lady Eagles.

Six seniors will look to make that dream a reality for the orange and black.

Returning for their final season in an Owensville Dutchgirl volleyball uniform are Kylie Kitchen, Josie Gerlemann, Molly Wnuk and Drew Copeland.

A returning All-Four Rivers Conference (FRC) and All-District player, Gerlemann was second on the team with 157 kills as a junior. She also led the team with 88 blocks last fall.

Kitchen will look to improve on her team-leading 37 aces from a year ago. She also led OHS with 364 assists as a junior.

Playing volleyball during her younger days, Mallory Eberlin also made the team to make it a six-pack of seniors.

Juniors rounding out the list of upperclassmen along with making up the majority of the 2022 Owensville Dutchgirl volleyball roster include Ally Gooch, McKenna Edwards, McKenzy Echols, Makensy Pigg, Ayla Schmanke, Hannah Stoker and Elise McFalls.

Madison Lewis rounds out the varsity Dutchgirl volleyball roster as the lone sophomore.

Stoker, Schmanke and McFalls will also suit up for Misti Rutledge's junior varsity Dutchgirl volleyball squad throughout the fall.

Spending her high school volleyball days at Cuba, Alexis Decker will begin her coaching career as the freshman coach for the Dutchgirls making the move north up Highway 19.

Making up the Dutchgirl freshmen roster are Rachel Koepke, Clara Julius, Alivia Riddle, Payton Myers, Brooke Jahnsen, Abby Morgan, Addison Scheer and Ella Adkison-Farmer.

Opening their season Monday night at home against Linn, the Dutchgirls will have two more home matches tonight (Wednesday) against Washington and next Tuesday against Belle's Lady Tigers.

After their Highway 28 showdown with Belle, Ridenhour's Dutchgirls will only have a home date with Hermann's Lady Bearcats on Tuesday, Sept. 20 with their remaining matches over the span of a month all on the road.

Those will feature tournaments at Fulton, Hermann and Rolla in addition to regular-season matches at Capital City (Jefferson City), Rolla, Fatima, Union and Steelville.

KYLIE KITCHEN (above) sets herself up to spike a volleyball back over to Linn's side of the net Monday night during Owensville's season-opening volleyball match against the visiting Lady Wildcats. Kitchen is one of six seniors suiting up for Jamie Ridenhour's Dutchgirls.

Gridiron Dutchmen set sights on conference, district titles

BY WILL JOHNSON
SPORTS EDITOR
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Plenty of motivation.

Nathan Cabot's Owensville Dutchmen football team certainly has enough of it entering the 2022 high school gridiron season.

Losing to Hermann and Union by a combined three points last fall, the orange and black came oh-so-close to adding another Four Rivers Conference (FRC) title to their district crown that they claimed on their home field.

Graduating a number of key players including two-time FRC Offensive Player of the Year Brendan Decker, Cabot's Dutchmen return five starters on offense in addition to seven starters on the defensive side of the ball.

Among those starters are offensive lineman Chance Clevenger (senior), Trey Johnson (senior) and Hayden Shoemaker (junior).

Clevenger is fresh off a junior season that landed him 3rd Team All-State, 1st Team All-FRC and 1st Team All-District honors for the orange and black.

"Having the bulk of our offensive line returning will allow us to be able to run our offense more effectively," Cabot said.

Another key returner on the offensive side of the ball is senior Charlie Whelan.

Coming out of the backfield at times as a wide receiver, Whelan's foot earned him a lot of accolades during his junior season.

Named an All-FRC and All-District 1st Team Kicker, Whelan was also selected to the Missouri Football Coaches Association (MFCA) All-State 3rd Team as a kicker.

"There are some teams out there that don't have the luxury that we do," Cabot said. "Having a kicker the caliber of Charlie (Whelan) can be valuable on special teams or in a tight game."

Fresh off a state championship last spring in the Class 3 Boys 110-meter hurdles at the Missouri State High School Activities

Association (MSHSAA) Track and Field Championships in Jefferson City, senior wide receiver Bryce Payne will look to make new starting quarterback Blake Elliott's life a little easier.

Finishing with 472 yards receiving and five touchdowns through the air, Payne will likely be Elliott's number-one target.

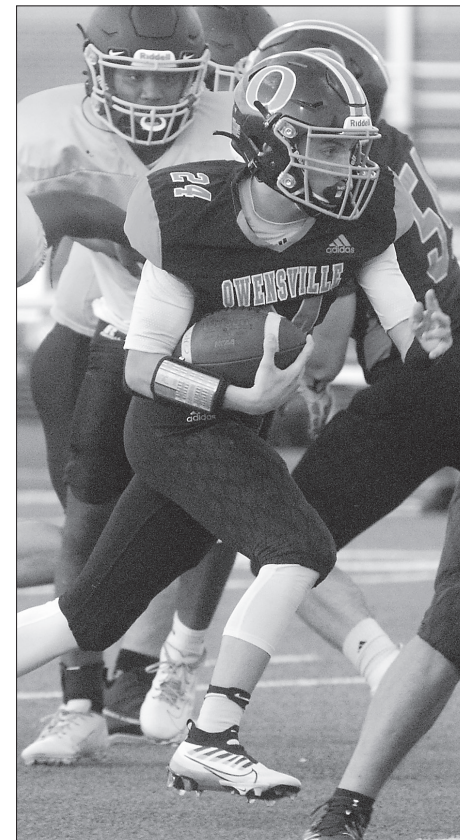

Joining the offensive returners will be a handful of newcomers.

At 6-1, senior Gabe Soest will be a tall target for Elliott out of the backfield.

Doubling as an offensive lineman and a tight end, junior Garrett Crosby will be a valuable weapon as either a blocker or a big tight end in the flat.

Cabot's Dutchmen will be looking to utilize their full compliment of offensive weapons throughout the fall.

"Our philosophy is to use our speed, spread the ball around to our athletes and to put our athletes into a position to succeed,” Cabot said. We plan to use our offense to control the tempo of the game and to be aggressive with our defense applying pressure to our opponents.”

Along with Clevenger on the defensive line, senior Hunter Boyer will look to improve on his 55 tackles, six sacks and six tackles-for-loss from a year ago.

Seniors joining Whelan, Payne, Clevenger, Soest and Boyer in their final season as an Owensville Dutchmen football player include Austin Long, Derrick Marquez, Trey Johnson and JJ Brown.

Juniors rounding out the list of upperclassmen in addition to Elliott, Shoemaker and Crosby include Tanner Meyer, Braydan McDaniel, Tyler Scheer, Isaiah Gates, Jacoby Limberg, Kaden Loeb, AJ Silvers, Landon Brown and Austin Mades.

Sophomores entering their second year of high school football for the orange and black include Zaiden Gates, Connor Fisher, Tim Winterbauer, Luke Reed, Logan Bailey, Jaden Gerlemann, Cole Gibson, Landon Kramme, Ethan Ditto, Jansen Loeb and Roy Schrodt.

Freshman getting their first taste of high school football will include Steven Buddemeyer, Adam Wilson, Connor Wellman, Dalton Nochta, Henry Womack, Ricky Marquez, Bryce Horstmann, Chase Weirich, Ben Kramer, Brendan Kramme, Henry Loeb, Ethan Brand, Landen Diestelkamp, Tucker Valley, Zach Barch and Dalton Pyrtle.

For the first time since 2005, Owensville’s Dutchmen will not open their season against Potosi’s Trojans.

Replacing the Trojans on the schedule in 2022 will be Warrenton’s Warriors.

OHS opened their season Friday night against Cuba’s Wildcats and will face Warrenton on Friday, Sept. 9 when they would normally face their Highway 19 rivals to the south.

After hosting Eldon’s Mustangs this Friday night at Dutchmen Field, Cabot’s orange and black squad will hit the road into Warren County to face Warrenton for the first time since 2001 and the Kevin Baldwin era of Dutchmen football.

Following their showdown with the Warriors, Owensville will begin their quest for another FRC title with home games against St. James and Hermann before closing September on the road at Pacific.

October action will see OHS host Union before traveling to Sullivan and St. Clair to close out the regular season.

GOOD LUCK

Four seniors look to lead OHS harriers to Columbia

BY WILL JOHNSON
wjohanson@wardpub.com

Ending their respective seasons last fall at the Missouri State High School Activities Association (MSHSAA) Cross Country Championships at Columbia's Gans Creek Cross Country Course, Dutchgirl sophomore Ilene Limberg and senior Lucas Morgan hope to have both of their full teams with them come early November.

Among 14 Dutchgirl harriers currently on the roster, 10 of them are underclassmen with five freshmen and five sophomores.

Senior Saylor Richardson in addition to the junior trio of Cassidy Gooch, Katelyn Holtzer and Peyton Weinland make up OHS' short list of Dutchgirl upperclassmen harriers.

Sophomores along with Limberg competing in their second season of high school cross country include Abbie Gibson, Kiana Wehmeyer, Lauren Kandlbinder and Elaina Lebish.

Freshman getting their feet wet on the high school cross country scene include Hannah Gehlert, Jenna Breedlove, Morgen Schmidt, Ashley Reed and Allysa Onder.

Ending her OHS Cross Country career at state last fall, Kyah Weirich joined fellow former Dutchgirl Mekayla Gibson at William Wood University (WWU) to run for the Lady Owls in Fulton.

Concluding his OHS Cross Country last fall, Freddy Zheng also chose to join Weirich and Gibson as a member of the WWU Owls Cross Country program.

Fellow Dutchmen senior harriers running their final season of high school cross country along with Morgan include Gabe Soest and Noah Holtmeyer.

Holtmeyer is a team captain while Soest is also a member of the Dutchmen football team which will make him a busy student-athlete virtually every weekend until early November.

Juniors rounding out the list of Dutchmen upperclassmen harriers include Andrew Blankenship, Felix Guerrero, Umberto Bertesi, Ethan Harris and Robert Coello.

Sophomores making up the majority of the Dutchmen cross country roster include Xavier Bayless, Kyle Bollman, Brandon Graham, Eli Graham, Elias Medlock, Jayden Stewart and Aidan Ward.

Making the transfer to high school from middle school cross country as freshman for the Dutchmen will include Drew Chapman and Coleton Conner.

Spending Labor Day weekend in Memphis the past few seasons, Matt Candrl's OHS harriers will instead open their season closer to home at the New Haven Invitational also over the Labor Day holiday weekend.
